

Call for Applications for the Oxford Farming Conference Travel Scholarship to AGRITECHNICA – the world’s largest trade fair for agricultural machinery.

Are you interested in developing your career or business and widening your horizons?

If you are interested in being considered for the 2017 travel scholarship, please complete this application form and attach a copy of your CV and a passport-type photo CLOSING DATE: MIDDAY 1st March 2017.

Oxford Farming Conference Travel Scholarship Application Form 2017

Name: _____

Address: _____

Tel Home: _____ mobile: _____

Email: _____

Current job title: _____

Please give brief details of your achievements and your future aspirations in the agricultural industry under each relevant heading. Attach your CV.

Post your application to: OFC Secretariat, Killington Hall, Killington, Kirkby Lonsdale, Carnforth, LA6 2HA or email to info@ofc.org.uk

a. Give a brief outline of your achievements to date at college, in your career or business.

b. Give an outline of the agricultural industry activities you are involved in outside your job or business?

c. Having attended the Oxford Farming Conference what innovations and changes would you suggest the conference should make to be beneficial for the younger generation of people attending?

d. What factors do you consider of most importance to encourage the younger generation into the agricultural industry.

e. In 150 words or less outline your future career aspirations or business plans

f. In 150 words or less, please set out why you are suitable to be considered for this travel award and how it will help with your career or business aspirations